

The Conor O’Keeffe Training Fund

Period: 2001-2002

The Conor O’Keeffe Training Fund was set up in 2000 in order to help provide professional training in mountaineering activities to members of the UCD Mountaineering Club. The fund is financed jointly by the club and the O’Keeffe family. The following is a statement of the accounts for the 2001-2002 period.

	Debit(€)	Credit(€)	Balance(€)
O’Keeffe contribution		254.00
Club contribution		254.00	+508.00
BMC Safety Course: (October 2001)
Brendan Arthurs	60.00
Aoife Byrne	60.00		+388.00
Single Pitch Award Training (November 2001)
Brendan Arthurs	57.00
Aoife Byrne	57.00
Brian O’Doherty	57.00
Gina Smyth	57.00
Dermot O’Dwyer	57.00
David Barry	57.00
John Dunne	57.00		-11.00
Club balancing contribution		11.00	0.00

It is hoped to run a subsidized Rescue Emergency Care course in the coming year and to bring a number of those who received SPA training to a level where they can attempt the assessment weekend. A dedicated savings account will also be opened to control the account.

UCD Mountaineering Club would like to acknowledge the O’Keeffe family’s continued participation in the club and their generous support for the provision of professional training to Club members.

June 10, 2002

CONFIDENTIAL